

KILLER KARRROTS

FROM OUTER SPACE

It was a regular day at school in the little town of Dunfast. It was a Tuesday and that meant the cafeteria ladies were serving carrot burgers for lunch (Yuuck).

ST TOMS ELEMENTARY

Then, suddenly a UFO appeared. It zapped the school with an evil beam!

The evil beam brought all the carrots to life.

Not only were they now alive but they were EVIL too!!!!

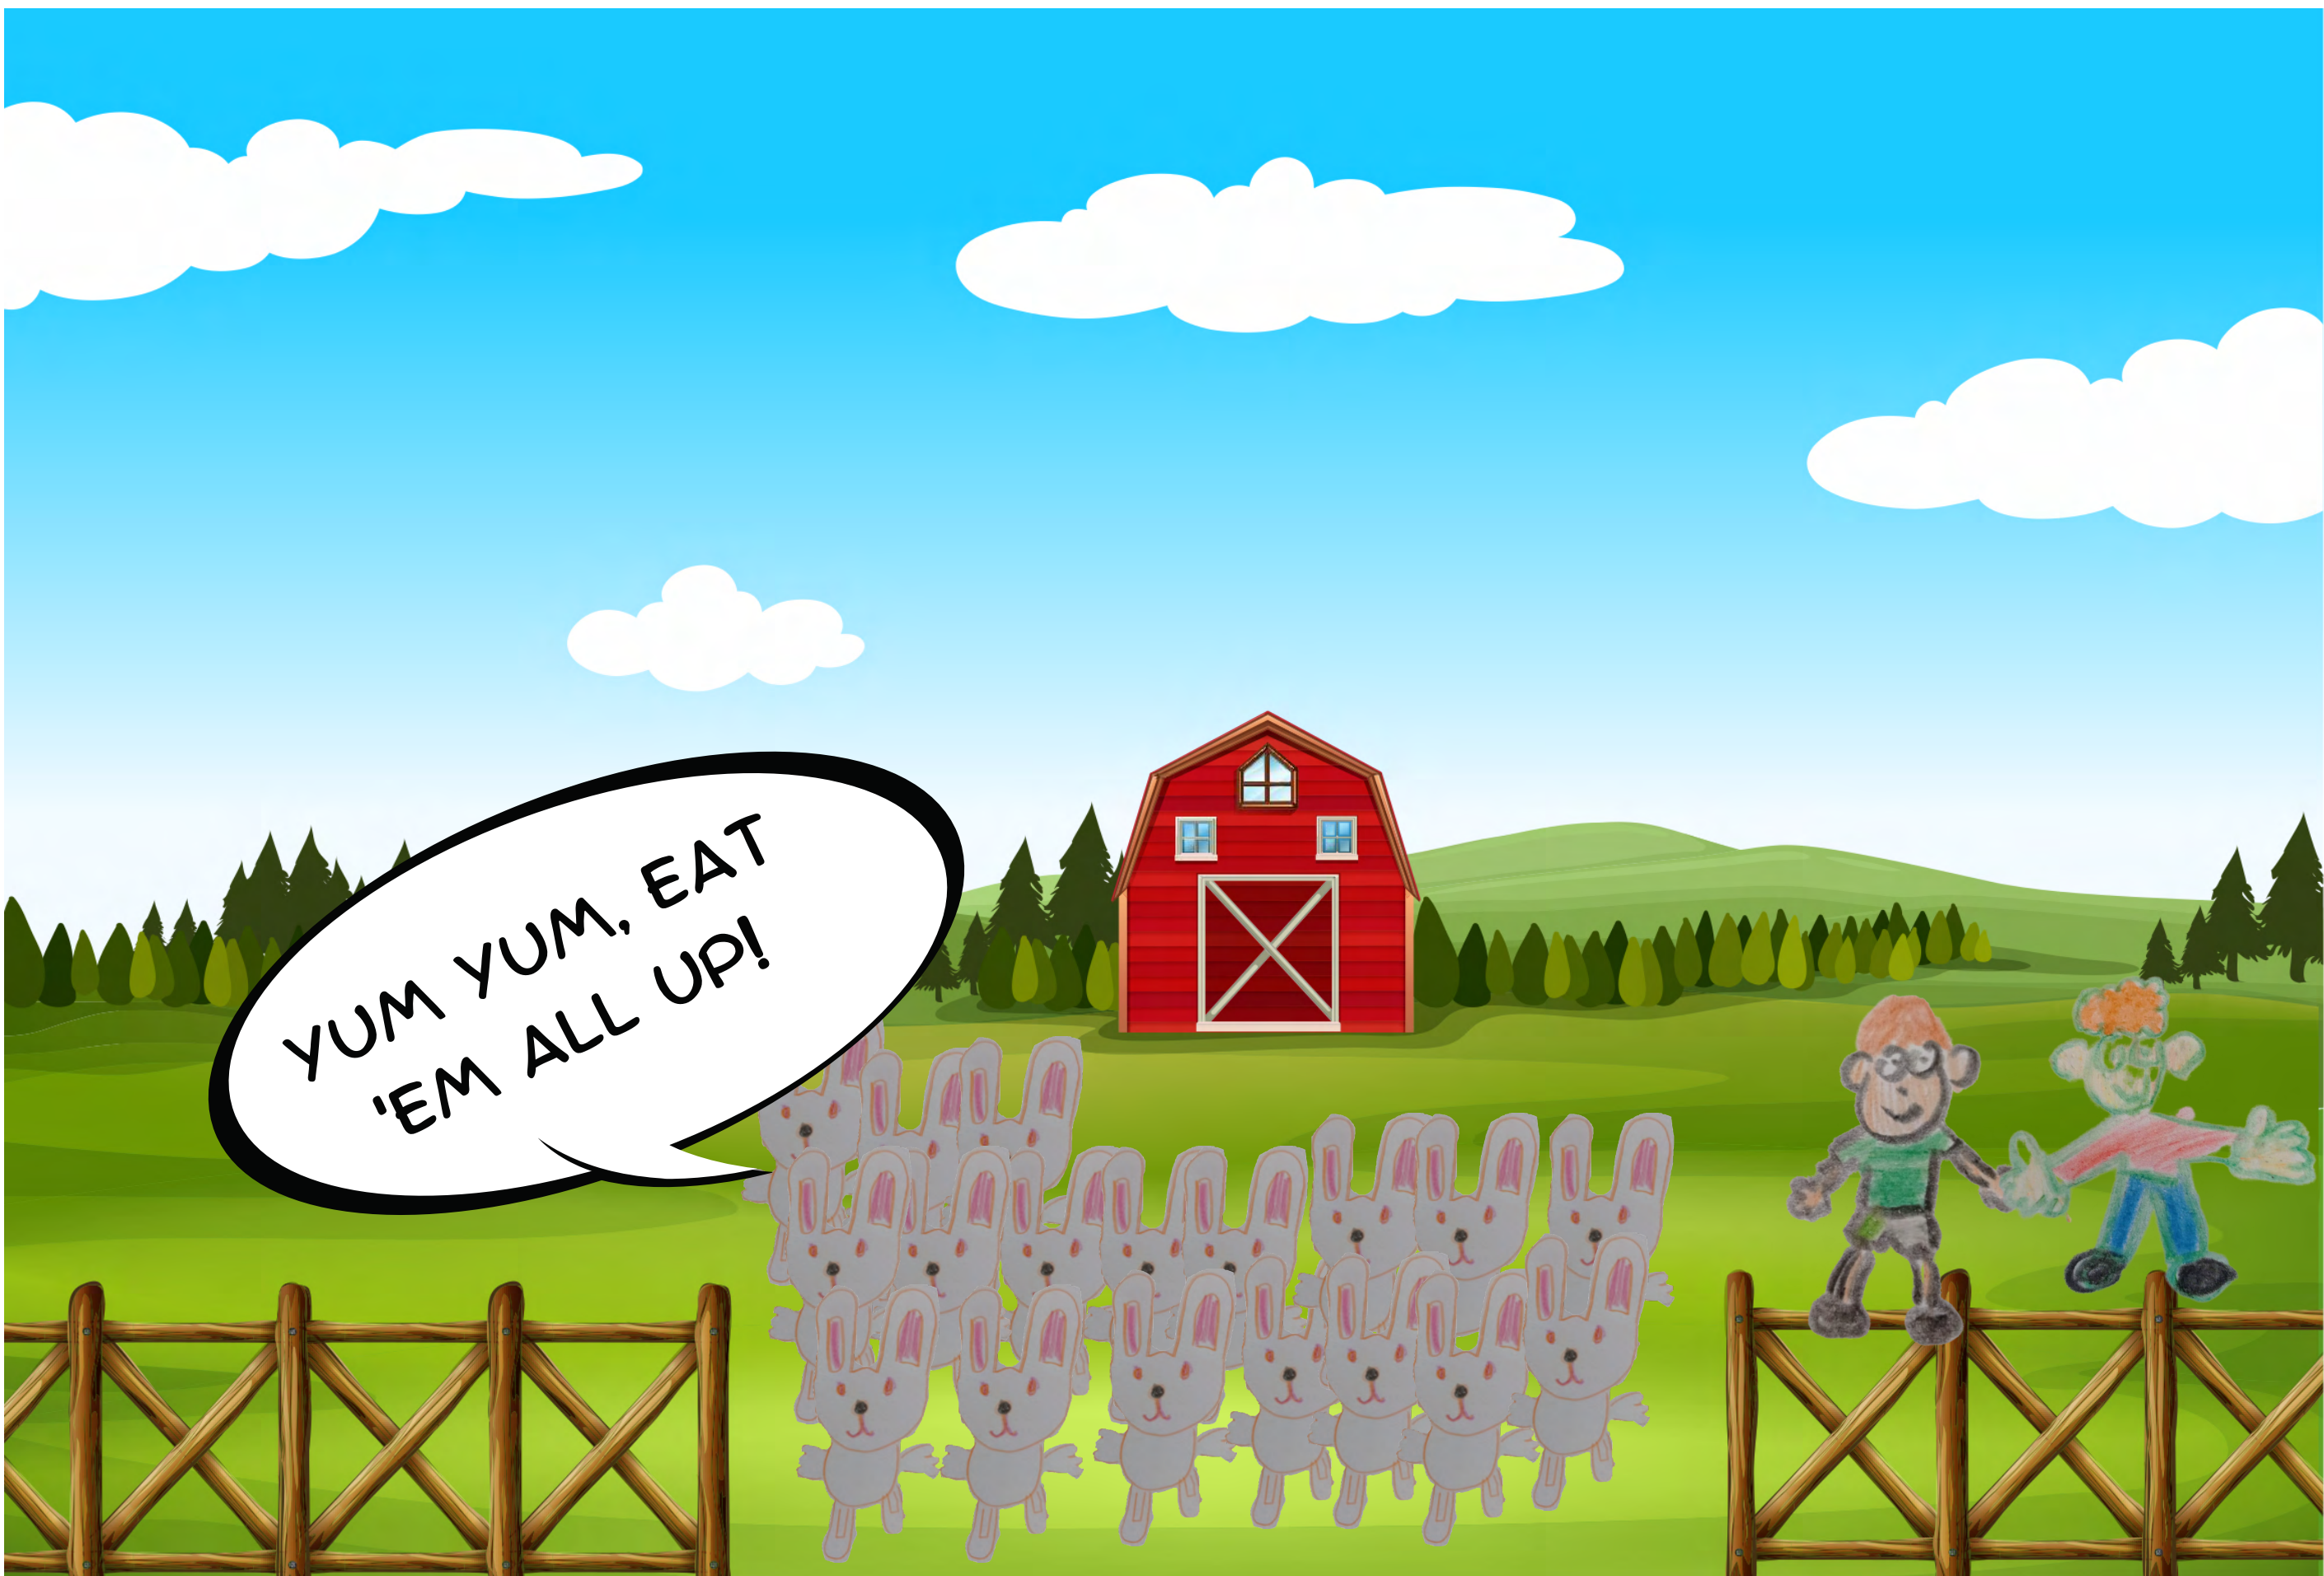

Who was going to stop them???

In Rang Sioga (the smartest class),
Ben and David came up with an idea
to save the world

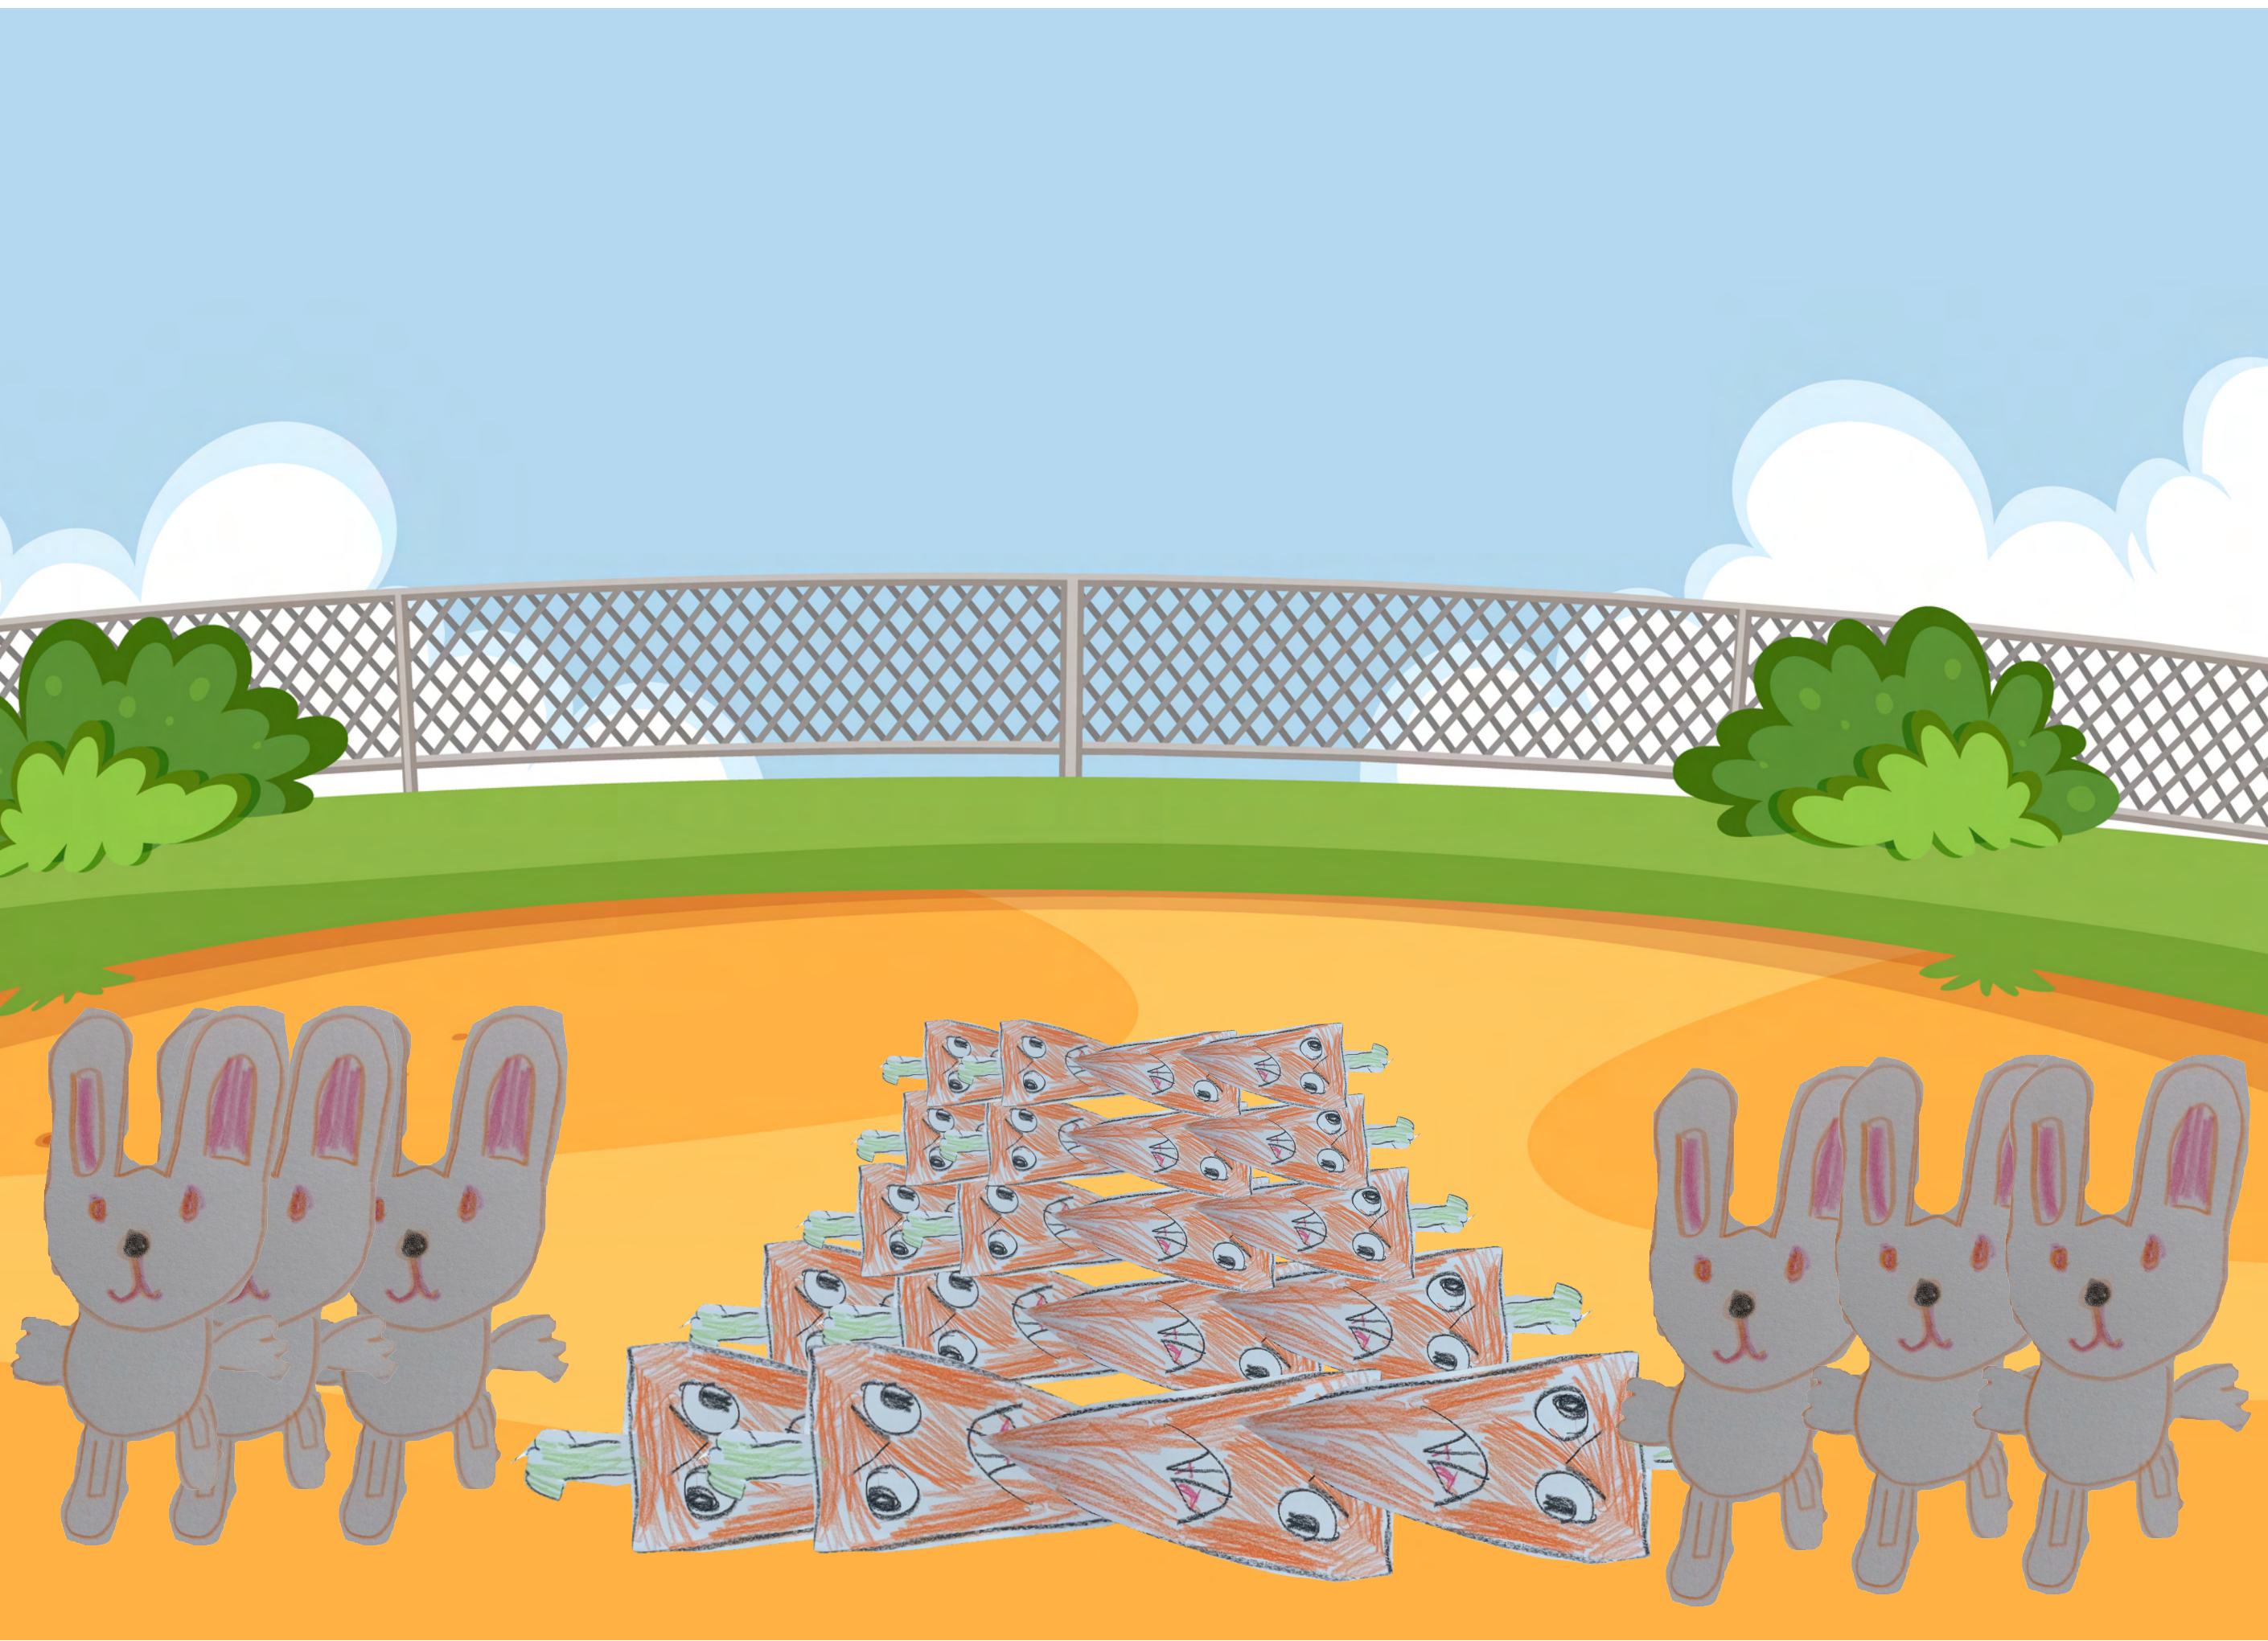

Down at the rabbit farm, Ben and David opened the gates and the rabbits rushed out as fast as they could....

Back at the school, a big battle took place between the karrots and the bunnies

Soon the karrots were defeated and all the bunnies tummies were full.
But then...

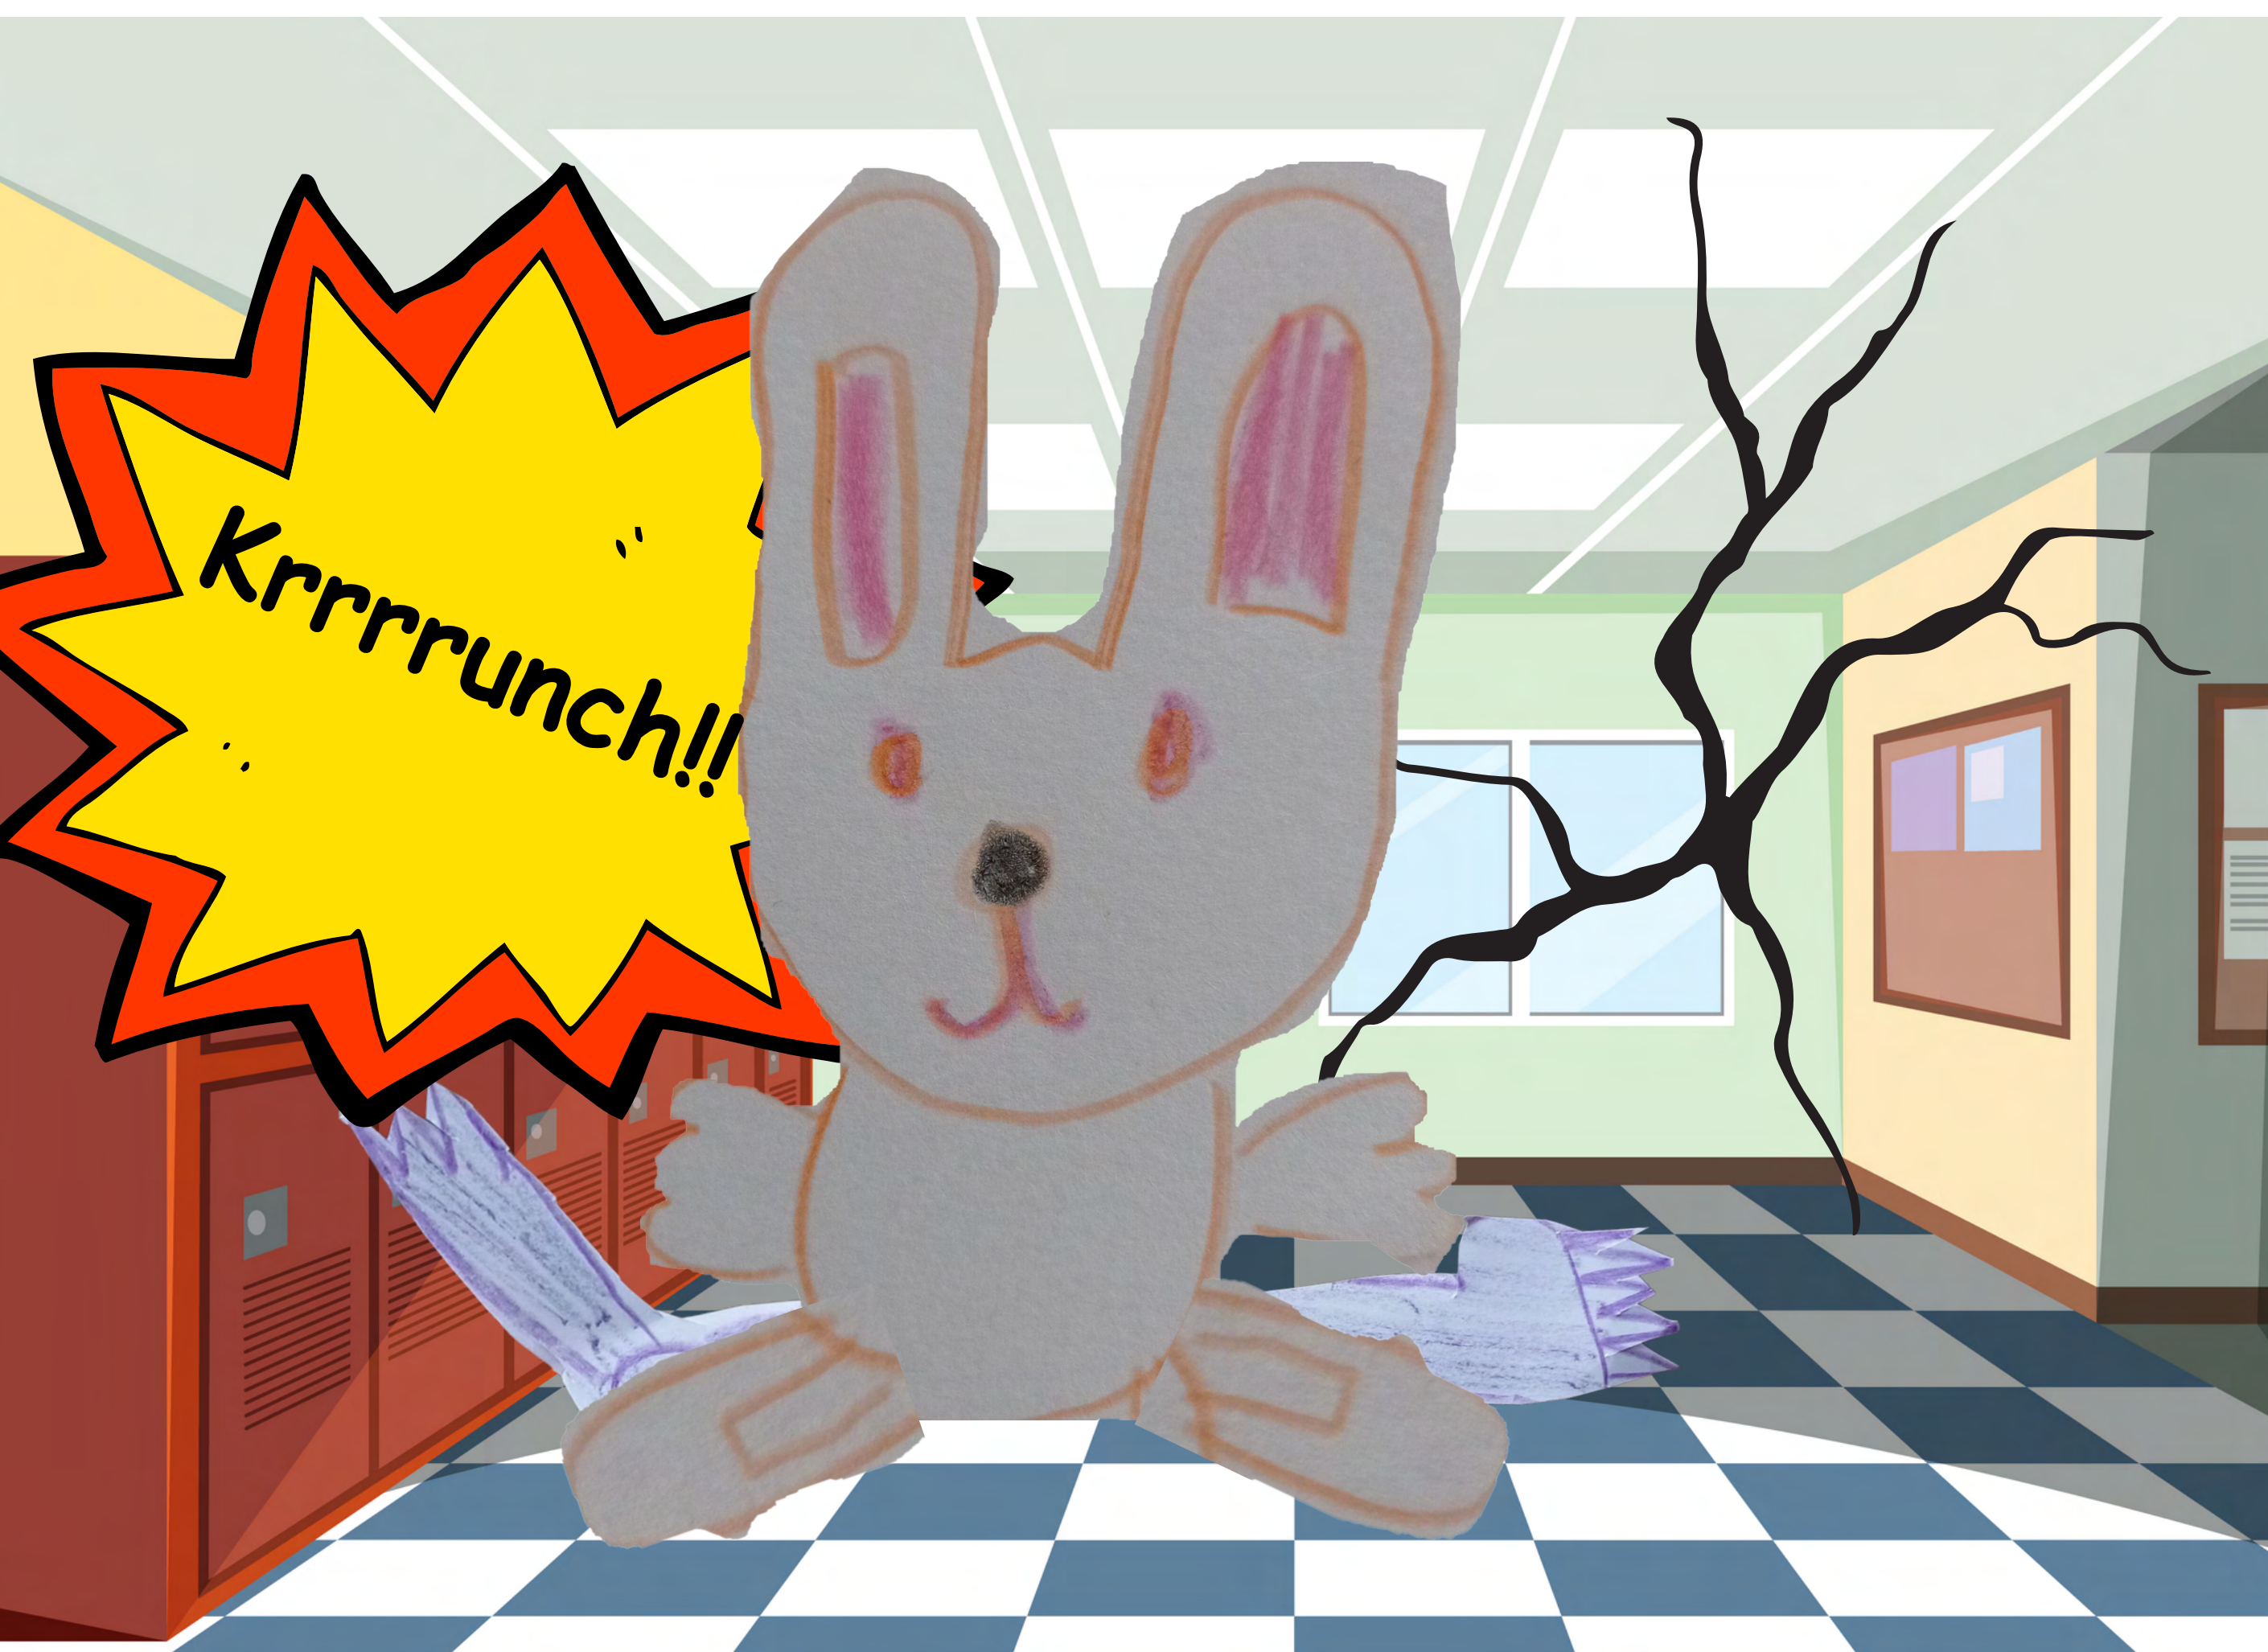

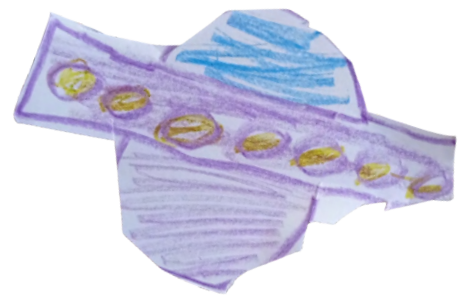

...The Killer Karrot 2000 burst into the school. He was so much bigger and smarter than the other Killer Karrots

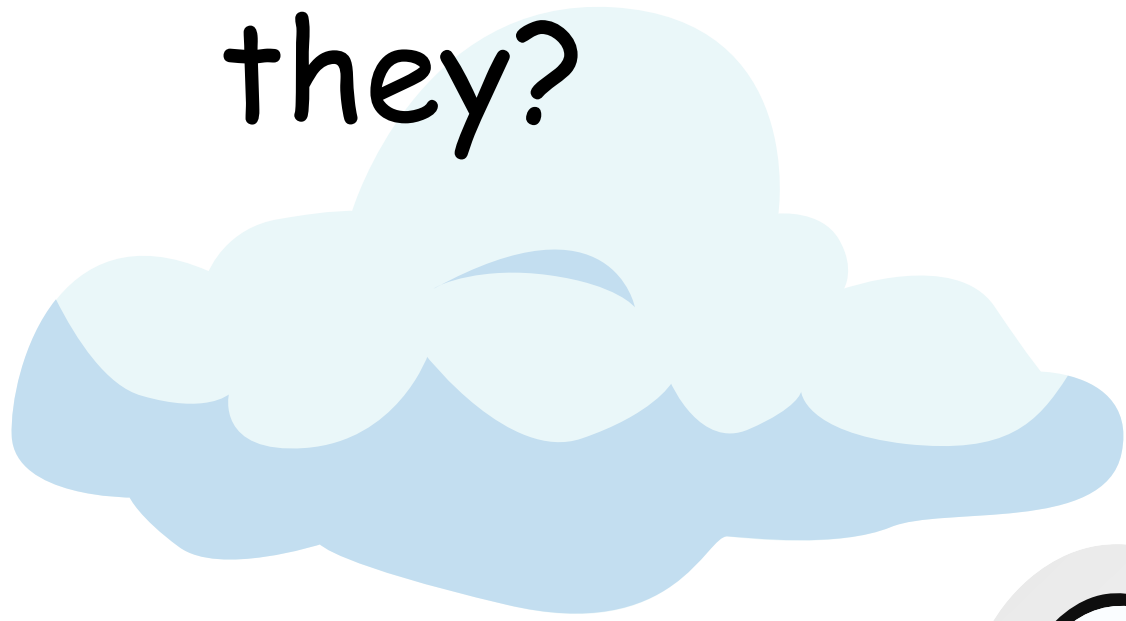

Before The Killer Karrot 2000 could finish his sentence, a giant fat rabbit fell through the ceiling and crushed him....

Finally, everyone had to go home from school for the day as the crack in the school wall needed to be fixed. Thanks to Ben and David (and the bunnies) - The Killer Karrots were defeated...or were they?

END
